REPORT NO.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

25X1

1. In mid-May 1950 it was learned that through a recent re-organization of the Soviet Zone German border police the Grenzpolizei-Leitung West no longer directly controls the Grenzpolizei-Kommandanturen. Functioning as intermediate headquarters, one Grenzbereitschaft was activated in Schoenberg (M 54/T 18) and one in Wittenburg (M 54/T 25). The line dividing the area of the two Bereitschaften runs through the villages of Lankow and Gross Thurow. The line dividing the area of Grenzpolizei-Leitung West and Nord runs through the villages of Roetenitz and Barendorf.
2. The Schoenberg Grenzbereitschaft I of Grenzpolizei-Leitung West controls Kommandanturen in Dassow, Herrenburg and Schlagsdorf.
 - a. The Dassow Kommandantur has Kommandos in Roetenitz, Volkstorf, Benkendorf, Dassow and Teschow.
 - b. The Herrenburg Kommandantur has Kommandos in Lauen, Isaligen, Herrenburg, Luedersdorf, Gross Mist and Schattin. The Herrenburg Kommando functions as a checkpoint for interzonal traffic. The Luedersdorf Kommando rechecks individual interzonal travelers. The other Kommandos are assigned to border control. The following personalities were identified in the Herrenburg Kommandantur:
Oberpolizeirat Kramer (fnu), chief, a veteran Communist Party member, who attended a party school of the SED, and graduated from a political school run by Soviet officers; Polizeikommissar Emil Duesterbeck, liaison officer to the Soviets, born near the Lithuanian border, speaks Russian, Lithuanian and German, graduated from Antifa and SED schools, joined the Volkspolizei after being released as a Soviet POW; Polizeikommissar Berg (fnu), head of the registration office, stationed in Herrenburg since 1 April 1950;
